

TyC with God

Do You Have Unfulfilled or Unreachable Dreams?

During this Christian season, consider Elizabeth, an older, mature believer, with an unfulfilled dream, and Mary, a young teenager from Nazareth, with an unreachable dream (Luke 1:5-45).

Elizabeth wanted to be a mother and gain significance, but she was barren and beyond child-bearing age (Luke 1:6-7 & 13-17). Mary's promised son revealed through the angel, Gabriel, was also problematic because she was a virgin (Luke 1:26-36).

Consider this verse in context: "For nothing is impossible with God" (Luke 1:37). Elizabeth's son, John the Baptist, would prepare people for the Lord (Luke 1:17). Mary's son, Jesus, would sit on David's throne and reign over the house of Jacob forever in an eternal kingdom (Luke 1:32-33). Mary needed community so she visited Elizabeth for three months. It encouraged and deepened both of their faith. Elizabeth felt favored because Jesus' mother visited her and the baby in her womb leaped for joy (Luke 1:41-45). Mary magnified the Lord by saying that God filled the hungry and lifted the lowly (Luke 1:46-56).

How does this Christmas story apply to us? Chuck Bomar wrote in College Ministry From Scratch, that the most effective way to gain deeper connections in the church is natural, mentor-like relationships between young people and older, spiritually mature adults.

Can you move beyond your comfort zone as an older person and reach out to young people and vice versa?

Wouldn't it be great to satisfy the needs of significance and community through mentoring relationships?
